Welcome! I'm Rebecca Davison, Director of the Intuitive Life Academy.

As an Intuition Coach, people come to me to activate abundance and joy through the development of their intuition.

As an international speaker, writer, and mentor I've helped empower thousands of women to break loose from their own limitations to live the life deep down they know is possible, one filled with opportunities, fulfilment, and pleasure.

I've studied the intuitive arts for over twenty years and developed my own signature tools and practices to help people to listen to their inner voice.

I've been featured in Holistic Fashionista, and Style magazine, and have been interviewed on Style TV in New Zealand. I've been a headliner for the Wanderlust festival, been on News for the Soul radio in the US, had my own radio show called Find Your Bliss, and I now host the Intuitive Abundance podcast.

I have a thriving coaching practice working mostly with conscious female entrepreneurs, helping them to know themselves on the deepest levels, so they can be truly empowered to walk their own path and follow their hearts.

I welcome you into a whole new way of being, one where you know and trust yourself deeply and can easily hear the callings of your own heart and soul.

You need support to reach your full potential

Are you allowing yourself to be supported to move into yours?

If you're ready to live from your soul and to live in the most intimate relationship with the Divine and be supported as you release all the barriers to your true essence, then this immersion process is for you.

Ready to face your fears and disperse them with love?

Ready to master your intuition so you can receive all the answers?

and make a bigger impact?
Ready to support others as they journey with you?

If so, then you're ready to receive the Divine Wisdom available to you in this program.

THE VALUES OF THE INTUITIVE LIFE ACADEMY

The Academy has three main values which will resonate with you if this is for you.
They are

FREEDOM, PLEASURE
ABUNDANCE

To teach others spiritual truth you must cultivate these qualities within yourself. By choosing to move forward into the program you will be making the deepest commitment to yourself and to these values. Your soul desires freedom from limitation, your life should be a pleasure and naturally you wish to experience the abundance that life has to offer. This is how you will know that you are in alignment with the Truth when you are experiencing these frequencies.

To move forward and to learn to live from your limitless self, you must tap into two aspects that are important for you to navigate your unique path.

They are your POWER and your PURPOSE

It's your purpose to bring grace to the world
To stand up and be an advocate for the Divine

Do you have a burning desire to know the feeling of LOVE FREQUENCY in your body?

Energy work is not of the mind. You don't need a degree, a certain level of intelligence, or accomplishment to do this work.

However, you need to have courage, a certain level of emotional resilience, and a willingness to be vulnerable to truly see and witness yourself.

This work is deeply powerful. You will come to know yourself in all aspects and learn what it takes to love the light and the dark within you.

In other words, we go deep.

To do this you must stand strong in your power to be the Light that others seek so they may know the way home, back to the Truth.

Your Spiritual Power

You'll be brave enough to face your deepest feelings in a supportive environment built on trust and acceptance. You'll be accessing DIVINE TRUTH so you'll develop an understanding of what this frequency FEELS like in your body, so you can KNOW the TRUTH for yourself and others. You'll learn the skills required to hold others in Truth so they can be transformed and step free and clear of lower frequencies, such as pain and suffering.

You'll become fearless as you know what it is to truly step into your spiritual power at the deepest levels and commit to living your life as a channel for the Divine.

You'll be activating miracle frequencies in your life and body so you can experience spontaneous healing, physically and emotionally. You'll be open to experiencing quantum shifts in your life and reality as you surrender to the Highest Power within you.

Knowing your purpose

You have a burning desire to know why you are here.

Sometimes the challenges in the way to knowing our true purpose can become WAY too complicated.

Maybe it's as simple as bringing joy to others! And, if so, what is the way that would bring YOU the most joy? Being in service is an integral part of purpose. We are born to help others, whether that is through a comforting ear, a beautiful piece of music or being with someone as they release pain and open to love.

Through this journey your unique purpose will become crystal clear as you open to the guidance of your spirit. It has all the answers.
You'll be in a space of more clarity than ever before.

What does the program cover?

Your Chakra System / Energy Centres - You'll understand how to work with your energy centres to create flow and harmony in your life. You'll be able to identify why you are "off' in any energy centre and how to correct it simply and quickly so you feel good more often.

Your Clairsenses - Your Psychic Superpowers. You'll establish what your predominant clairsenses are and how you can start working with them straight away to receive intuitive information so you trust yourself more and feel safe in any environment.

Non-Identification - When you identify with your thoughts, you suffer. When you identify with your body, you suffer. Through the process of non-identification, you will understand that you are not your mind, not your thoughts, not your body. You're consciousness. And when you have the correct perspective all your suffering can vanish.

Feeling your feelings It's the basis of deeply transformative work and includes facing your fears so you can transcend them. You'll learn what it is to see your fear as a signpost of where to go instead of what to avoid. You'll understand what it is to witness your own emotions so you can be the observer of your experience and therefore realise the real YOU is beyond emotion. You'll learn how to love and appreciate all your emotions as a feedback system. Once you understand the system, you'll alway know what to do.

Clearing Energy for others - You'll learn how to read other people's energy and pick up psychic information. You'll discover how to transcend people from limitation. This is so powerful in terms of helping people to release past traumas that they hold in their bodies and energy fields. AS A MAJOR BONUS - You'll be able to do this for yourself too! As you increase your vibration you'll be able to manifest and create what you want more effortlessly as you come into vibrational alignment with it. You'll powerfully step into your ability to facilitate healing for yourself and others.

The 12 immutable laws of the Universe - When you apply these laws to everything that you do, you'll start creating results from the quantum field of endless possibilities. This includes the Law of Attraction and the Law of Correspondence. Work wth the Laws and you'll manifest faster.

Balancing the Divine Masculine and Divine Feminine within you - We are made up of both of these energies, both the yin and yang. These eye-opening sessions will help bring harmony to your sacred relationships, especially your romantic partnerships. You'll experience balance within yourself so you truly know what it is to give AND receive which is a must for women in terms of connecting to their power and being open in their bodies to receive love, pleasure, and abundance.

Body Talk - Pain is a message and through intuitive development, we can learn what it is to listen to the body and what it has to tell us. Those aches and pains are often unprocessed emotions.Once identified they can be released and pain ends. This is an imperative part of practicing wellness in today's world - to listen to the wisdom of your OWN BODY.

Surrendering with Grace - If there is one thing I see consistently in my coaching practice its people who are often unwilling to let the Universe lead. From your past hurts you can lose faith or trust that the Divine has your back so we can resist surrendering to this Higher Power to allow miraculous solutions to spring forth. This is an act of ultimate faith in the Divine. You need support to allow yourself to trust at the deepest levels, especially if you are experiencing a chaotic situation. When you do, amazing and rapid expansions in your energy field are possible which results in amazing outcomes in your life.

Forgiveness as the Stairway to Heaven - Forgiveness is the root of all spiritual work and can often feel like the hardest piece. How do we forgive people we have felt deeply wounded by? There can be a lot of myths surrounding forgiveness that need to be unpacked. Forgiveness means you are releasing all heavy energies from your body. It is the gift you give yourself, to set yourself free. If you want to manifest faster, experience more fun, love, and bliss in your world, and have things go your way then you'll do the work of forgiveness. It’s the path to Heaven on Earth.

Creative Manifestation - You'll learn what it is to come into vibrational harmony with what you want as quickly as humanly possible. You'll step into your power as a limitless creator and learn what it really means to be able to say "I'm living my dream!". You'll learn how to collapse the illusion of time to bring you your desires in shorter periods of time.

The Law of One - The Law of One is the first and most powerful law and it takes time to embody. You will know you have mastered this law when you can clearly see that everyone in your life and in the world is connected. We are all part of the same consciousness. When you look upon another, you look upon yourself. This law helps us to transcend blame, criticism, and judgment as we know that when we judge others, we are doing it to ourselves. You discover what it is to see yourself and others as innocent which brings you inner peace.

Your Personal Reality AKA Personality - You'll learn how you have created your current reality and what it takes to deconstruct it so you can become SUPERNATURAL and learn what it takes to live from your intuition and your limitless self.

Professional Ethics - You'll learn the parameters required when working with clients and how to move through a client relationship seamlessly. This creates a safe boundary for you, your clients, and the industry of spiritual development.

This is a comprehensive program which is why it has an 8 month term. Choosing this work means you are making a deep commitment to your Infinite Self, which always responds when you call upon it.

Why this? Why now?

I am sure you have been witness to the extreme energies that are playing out on our planet at present. We are shifting from 3rd density consciousness to 4th (Heart) density consciousness and now more than ever we need to activate higher frequencies of energy within us so we can lead with love in our lives.

We need to be the change we seek.

The most valuable work we will ever do is the work of self-love and self-mastery. This is a golden time in terms of doing what is required to contribute to a shift in consciousness for the whole world. The first place to start this revolution is within ourselves.

The time is NOW.

What people have been saying about the Intuitive Mastery

Melissa Haberfield,
Director of Events and Marketing,
Social NZ

"This journey has been truly life-changing for me! The insights I have learned about myself on a deep soul level are beyond anything I could have imagined was going to happen.
One of the great opportunities I've had was to manifest a new role...that I absolutely love, a CEO role and the number of business opportunities that have opened up as a result of it, that completely align with my beliefs and my values, has been incredibly fulfilling and incredibly fun as well."

"I just felt it was something I needed to do. Now I know...I can do this, it's all inside of me. It's like opening a box of jewels inside and realizing "Ha! It was inside of me all along!"
I've always wanted a pot of money sitting in my bank account and now I have it..I've manifested more than double the amount of clients I had when I started this program. I've manifested much more ease in my business, more ideal clients, and better outcomes with my clients.
Everything literally does appear when I need it to appear.
I'd pay 10 times this to have these tools and this understanding. "

"I've always seen Rebecca as my guardian angel because she showed up when I was asking for an angel. I did five one on one sessions with her and it was absolutely powerful. I had no idea what we were going to do together on the calls but I just knew I had to do it. Over those 5 sessions my business tripled and my confidence was through the roof. I felt like I found a purpose and the passion back in my business. From there I decided to jump into Intuitive Mastery...and the rest as they say, is history!"

"I would have said many a time in the past that I felt my feelings but no, I didn't! Doing Intuitive Mastery has been HUGE in terms of helping me feel my feelings. I used to keep myself very, very busy because I would just keep going, going, going and help as many people as I could because it was more important to help other people with their stuff than it was to look at my own feelings. Now I allow myself to feel my feelings and there's no doubt I am so much better at processing it through. I know now that I have a good network of people to support me. I now really enjoy having deeper conversations and connections with people"

FAQs

When does it start?

The program is available to join immediately and you can sign up and start accessing the video content right now because Intuitive Mastery is an evergreen program. You will be given the live call schedule when you join. Given the level of investment you would be making, we would ask that you use your creator ability to ensure that you can make the call time a priority. i.e. Ask your boss for the extra time and make it up, arrange child care, ask for help from others. This is an investment in YOU. This first step demonstrates your first act of self-value.

I'm not from New Zealand, can I still make the call times?

We endeavor to make the calls at similar times. We have had folks from Canada and Australia, America, Singapore, India, and Europe on the calls so we have worked in many time zones previously with no issues.

What if I miss a call?

All the calls are recorded although it's in your highest interest to make the call live. However, if you miss it a recording will be posted afterward. We ask that you keep up to date with your video trainings so you don't feel left behind and can ensure you come to the live calls with any questions you may have.

What results can I expect?

This is energy work so what you put into it is what you will get out of it. I facilitate a process for you but you need to CHOOSE it. In saying that, if you go ALL IN, I know you will experience breakthroughs, shifts, and changes that are life-changing if you allow them. I've had clients manifest lump sums of money, new jobs, romantic partners, feelings of peace and security, and other wonderful and delightful experiences. If you want to see more testimonials you can by clicking HERE.

I feel a bit nervous/excited. What advice do you have?

That is great news! I have to share that personally whenever I have worked with a mentor whom I KNOW is going to stretch me, shift me outside of my comfort zone and take me to a new level of consciousness and awareness I have a little nervousness too. Like butterflies in your tummy. I've even had situations where I felt downright nauseous! It's your body and central nervous system registering that change is imminent. It will pass but it's not to be overlooked, in a GOOD WAY! This is often the start of your intuitive awareness. Change is exciting but can also feel challenging so I appreciate that it's so important to honor your body and support yourself. That is what I am here to help you with.

What happens if I need to withdraw from the program?

If an attendee needs to withdraw from the program we would look to support you in the best possible ways, appropriate to the reason for withdrawing. A prorated refund may be allocated, for up to the first 14 days in the program. After that time no refunds will be issued and the coach trainee will be liable for any remaining payments. Any requests to withdraw after that period of time would be assessed on a case-by-case basis to find the best solution for both parties.

One other thing:

* I reserve the right to reschedule any call due to any travel commitments I may have. This does not affect your rights and any calls due will be made up as soon as possible.
